Can a report be made anonymously?

Reports may also be made anonymously; however, it is recommended that they be made by name in order to allow for more efficient investigation activities. The safeguards provided for and granted by the legislation will in any case apply.

The report, whether anonymous or otherwise, must be substantiated and based on precise and concordant elements, of which the whistleblower has become aware in the course of their work, so as to provide any useful element to allow an appropriate verification of the validity of the facts reported.

What does Oniverse do after receiving a report?

The whistleblowing channel manager acts as follows:

the whistleblower is given acknowledgement of receipt of the report within seven days of receipt;

dialogue is maintained via the platform with the whistleblower and additional information is requested, if
